GLOBAL EXECUTIVE HOMES

About Global Executive Homes

We proudly support charities and the communities with which we do business capturing the attention of hundreds of affluent guests through our extravagant Luxury Home Events allowing them to establish a presence with a very targeted demographic. We are passionate about creating dynamic, creative and sustainable partnerships with our employees, sponsors, customers and the communities with which we operate.

Mission:

To provide creative, fair and timely solutions for homeowners around the world by buying and selling luxury real estate at fair prices.

Commitment:

Our goal is to donate $1 million to partner charities by 2012.

Our audience

We cater exclusively to those who may have been affected by the current economy or to those who have not had success through traditional real-estate means. Our clients include:

- Those who are downsizing
- Those whose house hasn't sold even though it's been listed for many months
- House in vacant
- Sudden death in the family
- Home is facing foreclosure
- Bankruptcy
- Divorce
- Payments are too high/cannot make payments
- Job relocation
- Making multiple mortgage payments
- Unable to re-finance

How our Luxury Home Events work

Global Executive Homes partners with various upscale businesses and services in the community to create a memorable experience through an extravagant two day luxury home event. The organizations involved are able to benefit by showcasing their product, or service, in a classy, sophisticated venue and help them gain valuable representation throughout the community. Their participation enhances the homes aesthetic potential and helps to create a brilliant, collaborative partnership for future events. Companies involved range from high-end car model dealerships, spas, private golf clubs, art galleries, designer furniture distributors, small businesses with specialty products and services such as landscape architects, interior designers and audio technicians.

We attract hundreds of affluent guests to our luxury home events including:

- Top executives
- International, national and local buyers
- Politicians
- Celebrities
- Media
- Well known leaders in the community
- Real-estate enthusiasts
- Large and small business owners and services
- Charitable representatives

Who's Involved

Angel Wings International

Angel Wings International is committed to building medical clinics and hospitals in key locations of the Port-au-Prince and Jacmel areas with a staff of doctors and nurses that will provide immediate emergency care to the surrounding communities.

Global Executive Homes is committed to supporting this cause by donating partial proceeds from the sale of the house, through our Luxury Home Events, and helping to raise one million dollars to build medical clinics and hospitals throughout Haiti.
